

TRI-STATE COALITION OF HISTORIC PLACES

cordially invites you to attend its Annual Meeting and Reception

Thursday, October 20, 2011

6:00 – 8:00 PM

The Highlands
7001 Sheaff Lane

Fort Washington, PA

Guest Speaker: Susan Randolph, Executive Director, The Marshall Steam Museum at Auburn Heights, Yorklyn, Delaware

“Managing Requests for Images: Advice for small museums”

Has your organization struggled with requests for images, or experienced unauthorized use of your images? Have you always intended to develop an institutional policy for rights and reproductions, but didn't know where to begin?

Susan's career in museum publication, exhibition development, and administration of a small historical collection gives her a uniquely helpful perspective on how small museums can manage requests for images. She'll provide tips and answer your questions.

6:00 PM: Public business meeting

6:45 PM: Guest presentation

Non-members: $10

Tri-State Members free of charge

Students with ID: $5

Refreshments will be served.

To RSVP, and for more information, email: info@tristatehistory.org

Become a member today! Visit www.tristatehistory.org

Directions to The Highlands: www.highlandshistorical.org/directions.html

Tri-State Coalition of Historic Places is a not-for-profit consortium of historic sites in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware that are open to the public to interpret the history of the site and region. The Coalition actively works to promote preservation and interpretation of historic sites through education, advocacy, mutually supportive collaborations, technical support & information exchange.